

ROLLA PUBLIC LIBRARY

SUBJECT: Solicitation

BOARD

Approved: 08/17/2023

POLICY

The Rolla Public Library will provide a bulletin board and/or counter space for display of flyers for local information and community events that are non-profit. Campaign signs and political signs, for ballot issues and elected office, may not, at any time, be placed or hung on library premises. Flyers must be approved by the Library Director before posting. All approved flyers will be initialed by the Director. The Library reserves the right to remove unapproved or expired flyers from bulletin boards and other areas.

Flyers in children and teen areas will consist of age-appropriate solicitation for children, families and teens.

Use of Rolla Public Library's name, logos, trademarks or images in connection with any advertising is prohibited without permission by the library.

Fundraising, asking for money or selling goods and services on Rolla Public Library property is prohibited. Library staff or volunteers participating in approved activities sponsored by the Library or Friends of the Library are exceptions to this policy.

The provision of Library premises for the public expression of opinion does not constitute Library endorsement of the opinions or ideas of those individuals and organizations using the space.

Any exceptions are subject to the approval of the Director.
